

Bookworm

* You will have to write small!

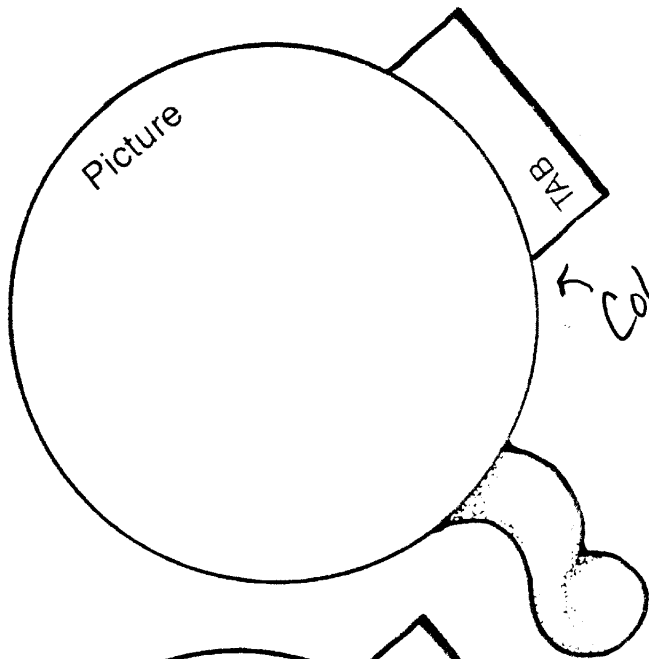

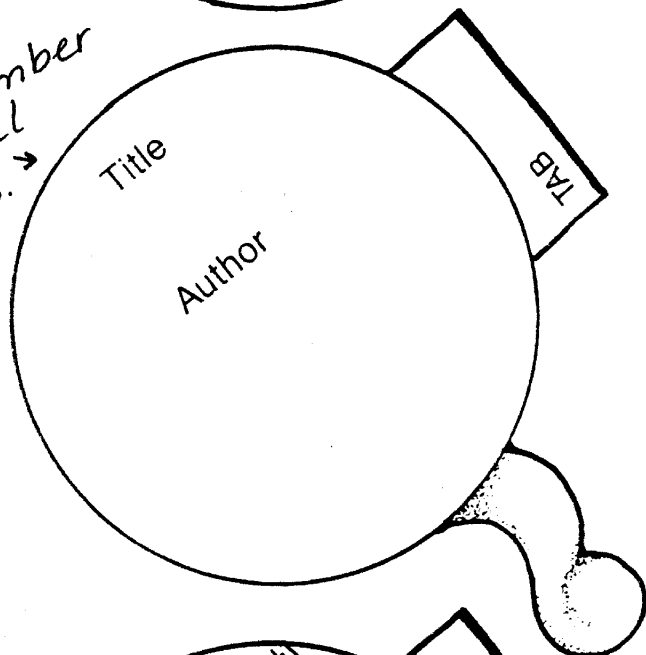

← Your name here

Directions:

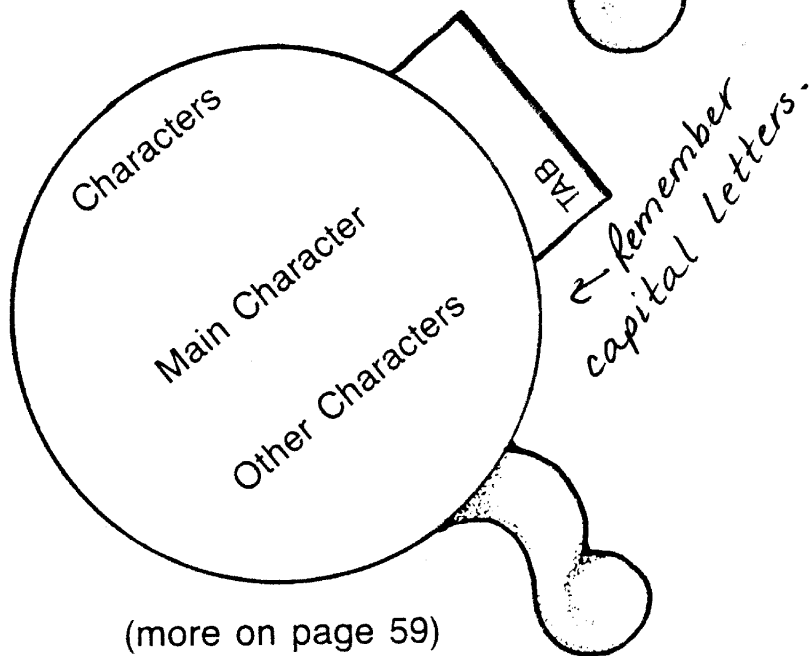

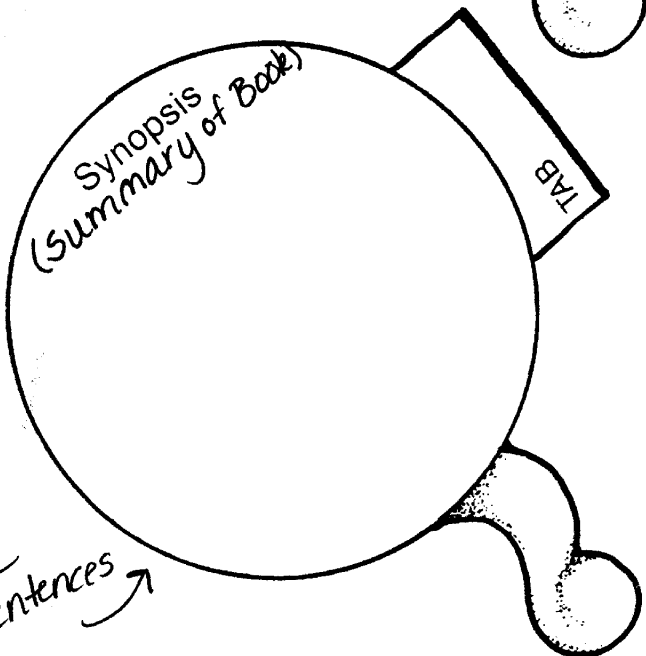

1. Have students select a book to read.
2. After reading, have them fill out the first body section information.
3. Then have them draw an illustration of their favorite part of the story in the second body section.
4. Repeat with the remaining body and tail sections.
5. Paste tabs to the back of the next body section to form the bookworm.
6. Display on a colorful bulletin board.
