Dear Parents,

As referenced in my previous letter, the Sunnyside Christian School Board met yesterday to reevaluate when the elementary campus should resume in-person education. It was determined that the elementary campus should continue with distance learning for the week of November 2 through November 6. At this time, it is anticipated that in-person education will resume for the elementary campus on Monday, November 9. However, this is a fluid situation, and it is possible that the elementary campus may not resume in-person education on November 9. The School Board will be meeting again later next week to, once again, reevaluate the situation. You will be notified of any decisions made shortly after the School Board meets.

Please note that the elementary campus is continuing with distance learning for the week of November 2 through November 6 because of staffing limitations due to recommended quarantines. There are very few persons within Sunnyside Christian that have tested positive for COVID-19. The decision to continue distance learning for another week at the elementary campus was not based upon the number of positive test results. Additionally, the elementary campus has been cleaned and disinfected. The recommendation from the Yakima Health District was that "there is no need to close the entire elementary school unless staffing limitations are present."

The elementary teachers will be in contact with their students and parents if there are any further materials that your child may need now that distance learning has been extended for another week. The elementary campus will be open on Monday, November 2, for parents to pick up such materials.

The high school campus will continue with its in-person education. However, there will continue to be no bus service. If the elementary campus does return to in-person education on Monday, November 9, then bus service would also resume on November 9th.

Sincerely,
Brad Van Beek
SCS Administrator
